OUR RESPONSE TO AN UPRECEDENTED YEAR

UJA-Federation of New York's Report of Grants Awarded is a comprehensive, transparent record of the funding allocated in fiscal year 2021. Every grant reflects deep strategic planning, rigorous review, strong collaborations, and a shared vision for the Jewish community.

When the UJA funding year began, in July 2020, we believed that a return to normal was possible. While we recognized that the impact of Covid-19 was deep and devastating, we were buoyed by the unprecedented government, philanthropic, and human response to the crisis. It was clear that New York in particular, as a dense and heavily populated urban center, would need special care and attention and that the path to recovery would be steeper and longer than in many other parts of the country and world.

We remained optimistic that with enough support, time, and collective action, we could be whole again. We lingered outside for as long as the weather would allow and celebrated when the dark winter days were brightened by the authorization of Covid vaccines. Israel was our bellwether and generated headlines for all the right reasons. We began to understand that our new reality included an endemic virus that would require ongoing vigilance and care.

And while we hoped for a return to normal, we also recognized that even prepandemic, normal was never truly enough for those long caught in the grip of poverty and other difficult challenges. Our investments reflect our aspirations both to respond to crisis and to build a better world.

Both in terms of dollars allocated and the number of grants approved, UJA broke all previous measures. Through every peak and valley, every dip and dive of every graph, we remained focused on meeting the needs of our communities. As the landscape shifted between optimism and despair, we were propelled forward by our collective determination. There are heroes as far as the eye can see. From the front lines to behind the scenes, this is a story about rolling up our sleeves and doing whatever is required. Please read this book with pride, respect, and deep gratitude that we are in this moment together.

WHAT WE DO — AND HOW WE DO IT

As always, UJA is represented by teams of volunteers and staff that showcase the rich diversity of Jewish life. Together, we work from organizational priorities that determine the path for how and what we fund. We're also committed to representing distinct voices in our community, including nonprofit staff and academics, community members and the clients we help, to best understand where our investments can make the greatest impact.

UJA supports a global network of nonprofit partners that includes Jewish community centers, human-service agencies, camps, Hillels, and overseas agencies, plus hundreds of grassroots organizations.

In Fiscal Year 2021, UJA distributed $154,576,000. This includes $62,294,000 in unrestricted grants to a network of more than 60 core partners plus $67,354,000 in strategic, directed grants, and $24,928,000 in emergency Covid-19 and crisis response-related grants to longstanding institutions, grassroots organizations, synagogues, day schools, and other eligible nonprofit organizations.

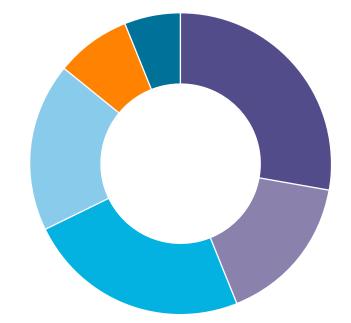

You'll find a full listing of grants starting on page 8, alphabetically by agency, that catalogs the name and full funding amount to each organization. This offers the most complete representation of the work we fund.

That's how we change the lives of 4.5 million people a year.
